Ross Mason founded Motion Media Solutions in 2004 to deliver video production services to organizations adopting new media technologies as enhanced communication strategies.

Motion Media Solutions

A new media video production agency supporting corporations & non-profit organizations, foundations and small businesses. We provide creative solutions to help our clients effectively communicate for fundraising, training, promoting, archiving and distribution.

From concept to delivery, we design, plan & execute each project as a reliable partner, serving our clients collaboratively and transparently.
